

April
2019

Between The Lines The Courtyard

Thursday, April 4 – The Greenville Goldenaires return to have a sing-along with the residents. This fun afternoon of music begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. Join us because as they say, the more the merrier.

Saturday, April 6 – Join us at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro today for music by Mark Deschenes. He always puts on a fabulous show. Be sure to come early as seats will fill up quickly. You'll be dancing in your seat.

Monday, April 8 – One of our favorites, Mike Coletta, returns to strum his guitar and sing for us. Everyone is encouraged to sing along to the many favorite tunes he performs for us! The show begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro.

Wednesday, April 10 – We are delighted to have Gary Landgren back at the piano this afternoon. He puts on a spectacular performance and will have you dancing in your seat. Be here early for a front row seat. The show begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro.

Thursdays, April 4, 11, 18 and 25 – Moriah, a member of our village team, will be playing the piano for us in the Bistro from 10:30 to 11:00 a.m. The residents love to listen to her beautiful music, much of which she composes herself. Join us for this special weekly performance!

Saturday, April 13 – We are happy to have Steve Burke return to perform for us at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. We always have a great time when he visits. Come early for a good seat.

Sunday, April 14 – Bill McMillan, a licensed minister from Park Place Congregational Church, and his wife Darlene will be here to lead a beautiful worship service filled with music and life stories. The service begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. We hope you will attend this uplifting event!

Monday, April 15, 22 and 29 – Join team member Nancy Stanley in a wonderfully relaxing yoga class. This will take place on the McIntosh unit at 2:00 p.m. Be sure to come try this new program to work on mind, body and spirit.

Tuesday, April 16 – Our talented staff member, Meredith Lambert will play the piano for us at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. This is a show you won't want to miss. Come enjoy the afternoon with us as we sing-along to oldies but goodies.

Wednesday, April 17 – Joe Mack Sax returns to perform for us at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. Come early as seats will fill up quickly. This is a terrific way to spend the afternoon with family and friends.

Friday, April 19 – Come join us for some relaxing music by Jay Slick. He is always very entertaining. The fun begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. Come sing along to some oldies but goodies with us.

Saturday, April 20 – Hawaiian party today at 2:00 p.m. Join us as we listen to some Hawaiian music and have some Hawaiian treats along with the attire to put us in the party mood. This is a fun way to spend the afternoon with family and friends.

Sunday, April 21 – Happy Easter! Join us today for “piano and pastries”. What a great way to spend the day listening to the piano and having some delicious pastries. Our friend Connie Giso always puts on a fabulous show. You are sure to be dancing in your seat. The event begins at 2:00 p.m. in the Bistro. Be early for a front row seat.

Wednesday, April 24 – Diana Bryant will be here to hold a ceramic class in the Bistro. The fun begins at 2:00 p.m. Come join us and see what you can create.

Thursday, April 25 – Our monthly Resident Council meeting is an important get-together that all are welcome to attend. Come and let the Activities Director and the Food Service Director know what you're thinking about the services they offer in their respective roles. Questions, comments, suggestions, and ideas for improvement are always welcome and encouraged. Also, please remember that you never have to wait until the Resident Council meeting to come forward to any of the team members with your concerns. We are always here for you!

Saturday, April 27 – Kim and Chris return to put on their spectacular performance here in the Bistro at 2:00 p.m. We look forward to this lively show. They always have us dancing and singing to the tunes. Join us for a music filled afternoon.

Sunday, April 28 – We are happy to have Brian Mullaney return to “tickle the ivories” for us in the Bistro at 2:00 p.m. He always gets us singing along. This is a show you won't want to miss. Come early for a front row seat.

The Atrium

Thursdays, April 4, 11, 18 and 25 – Moriah, a member of our Village team, will be playing the piano for us in the Atrium dining room at 11:00 a.m. The residents love to listen to her beautiful music, much of which she composes herself. Join us for this special performance!

Tuesday, April 9 and 23 – Meredith will tickle the ivories in the Atrium common area at 2:30 p.m. as she entertains us with her delightful performance. Come listen to the soothing piano tunes while relaxing in the comfortable surroundings.

Weekly Happenings

Thursday mornings at 9:30 a.m. our “Courtyard Shop” is open for residents to purchase various items with their bingo tickets. Those without tickets can also get in on the shopping spree. This is a popular event so be sure to get to the Bistro early!

Mystery Rides are on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9:30 a.m. Get on board for a relaxing jaunt through countrysides and cityscapes.

Evening Activities

Residents choose from a list of 5-6 possible activities which the team performs with them after dinner in the evenings. These Activities include: Manicures, sing-along, trivia, word games, and puzzle groups.

